

HIGH- RISK INDIVIDUAL PROTECTIVE MEASURES TRAINING COURSE

The ultimate training course for overseas travel. This course covers all the country threats and modules of the other pre-travel seminars. This course also includes the best hands on training available to the public with personal firearms training, evasive driving skills training, and a surveillance detection skills practical exercise that replicate the modus operandi of the threat groups in the country of travel. This course is at least five days long and requires the student to be in reasonable physical shape and able to drive and fire a weapon. This course is also customizable for other skills such as emergency medical treatment, basic survival language skills, Hostage Survival, field survival, urban survival, land navigation, off-road driving skills and others.