

PRE-TRAVEL INDIVIDUAL PROTECTIVE MEASURES SEMINARS

These seminars provide the client with the education needed for overseas travel that mitigates risks pertaining to threats in a foreign country. These seminars cover all country specific threats including criminal, terror, medical and environmental and any other threats discovered in the research of threats for that country.

Seminars include modules of instruction that cover The History of Terrorism, Criminal and Terrorist Operations, Individual Protective Measures, Route Analysis and Detecting Surveillance. These modules include practical exercises in a small group format. Allowing better learning of principles, fundamentals and techniques needed for the reduction of threats. By reducing the signature of the clients and reducing the chances for a situation to develop reduces the risks the client will encounter. This will reduce overall liabilities of your companies.
