

5-Day Designated Marksman Course

A Designated Marksman is a soldier with above average marksmanship and is equipped with accurate weapons and optics, used to engage and neutralize deadly force threat targets of opportunities in support of small units. This course consists of in-depth instruction on marksmanship fundamentals, known distance shooting, moving target engagement, ballistics, limited visibility engagement. Threat response, Methods of Engagement, Immediate action drills for Threat Mitigation, shooting from cover/concealment and advanced shooting positions are also covered in this comprehensive course

5, 10, 20 Day Sniper/Observer Course

Call for Pricing

The Introduction Sniper Course is a 5-day course designed to teach novice sniper students the basic skills needed to conduct Sniper/Observer duties in support of small unit operations. The course focuses on two main areas of instruction sniper marksmanship and field craft.

The 5-day course consists of in-depth instruction on marksmanship fundamentals, unknown distance shooting, moving target engagement, ballistics, limited visibility engagement. This is an introductory course only.

The 10-day course is a continuation of the 5-day course that builds those skills, and then focuses on field craft, which consists of in-depth instruction on range estimation, target detection, stalking, photography, information reporting and hide site construction.

The 20-day course is a continuation of training that develops master level marksmanship skills, encompasses all the skills of the 10-day course, and prepares the Sniper/Observer team for integration into full engagement operations.

3 and 5 Day Aerial Platform Sniper course

Call for Pricing

The 3 and 5 day Aerial Sniper Course develops advanced skills for the Sniper Team that has already been trained in basic Sharpshooter and Sniper operations. This course begins with basic aircraft familiarization procedures and takes the student to a point where they are engaging targets from a moving aircraft up to 20knts. The only difference in the 5-day course is the amount of flight time given to students.

