

Three Day Gunfighter Course

This course develops a solid gunfighter mentality and skill set needed for integrating both primary and secondary weapons systems with focus on the Active Shooter Scenario. The student will exercise these skills in a variety of stressful shooting situations from daylight to nighttime shooting. The student will quickly gain experience, confidence and increase their skill level with the handgun and carbine. A comprehensive Combat Tactical Skills evaluation is given and measured results are stress induced.

Skills Taught

- Weapons loading/unloading
- Fundamentals of Combat Marksmanship (CMMS)
- CMMS principals
- Bore/sight relationship
- Immediate action for malfunctions
- Tactical and Speed reloads
- Integrated weapon transition
- Trigger manipulation drills
- Recoil management drills
- Rapid aimed fire
- Single target engagement
- Multiple target engagement
- Use of cover and concealment
- Night fire using tactical lights
- Barricade shooting
- Shooting and moving
- Shooting while moving
- Combat Tactical Skills Evaluations
- Timed Shooting Stress Evaluations

Course Requirements

- Individual issued weapons
- Usual individual tactical gear to include holster and ammo pouches
- Personal protective equipment
- Weather Appropriate Clothing
- 1000rds of issued ammunition primary weapons
- 1000rds of issue ammunition secondary weapon

Course Goals

- Dramatic increase in shooting ability from start to finish of course
- Complete understanding of fundamentals of CMMS
- Understanding of weapons integration
- Understanding of methods of engagement