

HIGH THREAT COUNTRY ESCORT AND SECURITY OPERATIONS

With natural disasters happening ALL over the world and organizations needing to report, assist or assess means that many people go into an unstable area unprotected and vulnerable. Raidon Tactics Inc. can provide security and escort operations in short order and with little to no notice. Our personnel are self sustaining with the capability to have food and clean water available to your organization along with the protection and escorts they need. We provide medical services and driver services along with our security package. Provided by former Special Forces Medics, our medical services are the best in the world for the austere conditions you may find yourself in. We have the capability to provide 1800 gallons of clean water per day to you and your organization. We also provide professional drivers that are TRAINED in counter-terror driving techniques to keep you safe whether driving off-road or the streets of Haiti. A typical security team is made up of Special Forces Personal Security Agents, Special Forces Medical personnel, and local interpreters.
